

First Time Producer, Michael Gross, Propels Comedy Series Into Emmy® Contention

Michael Gross, known for his roles as Steven Keaton on Family Ties and the fan favorite Burt Gummer in the Tremors franchise, steps into the producer role of the award-winning web series*, Carbon Dating. Gross brings his comedic vision to savvy audiences hungry for relevant internet content.

For the first time, the Television Academy honors Short Form Series - Comedy or Drama in the 68th Annual Prime Time Emmy® Awards this Fall. Gross delivers a smart, insightful comedy that will resonate with 76 million Baby Boomers and their Gen X and Millennial children.

Carbon Dating follows the whimsical misadventures of two Baby Boomers awkwardly aging in a youth-oriented society. With the clever use of flashbacks and fantasy sequences, these best friends tackle a myriad of age-related annoyances and inconvenient realities including on-line dating, failing eyesight and senior moments.

Michael Gross helms the series in its bid for an Emmy® in two categories: Outstanding Short Form Comedy or Drama Series and Outstanding Actress, Marcie Barkin (All In The Family, Welcome Back, Kotter, The Facts of Life).

**Best Web Series - Los Angeles Independent Film Festival, Direct Short Online Film Festival, New Life International Film Festival, Bronze Medal at International Independent Film Awards.*
